

2011 WINTER SINGLES KO

Changes to the rules are shown in blue. Please note that all competitors have plenty of time to play each round as long as they contact their opponents as soon as they are known. The Committee this year will only accept extreme exceptional circumstances to grant any extension. This is not negotiable.

- Both players are now responsible for contacting each other as soon as possible and ensuring the match is played before the end date of the round.
- A minimum of 3 dates must be offered by each player – 2 weekend dates and at least 1 weekday date. All dates offered must be within the relevant dates for the round concerned i.e on or between the start date and end date of that round. Public/ Bank Holidays are regarded as weekend dates.
- If both players agree, the match may be played before the start date of the particular round.
- If both players cannot agree a date between them and the match has not been played by the end date, both players are eliminated.
- Cancellation of a pre-arranged match Failing a genuine attempt by both parties to rearrange the match, the player who did not cancel goes through.
- Extensions to the 'play-by' date No-one will be allowed an extension to the 'play-by' dates, unless there are extremely exceptional circumstances which are referred to the Competitions Committee as soon as those circumstances arise and NOT when the 'play-by' date is about to arrive! Examples are shown below
